BACKGROUND:

The Business Development Advisory Council (BDAC) was created by Clark County Code Chapter 3.56 on August 4, 1987. BDAC's duties include but are not limited to promoting the County's Small Business Opportunity Program (SBOP); working with the State of Nevada's entrepreneurial (Department of Economic Development) office, acting as a mentor, and working with local agencies and organizations involved in aiding and promoting local, small, women-owned and minority business enterprises.

In March 2024, an individual member resigned from BDAC. The current members have selected to fill the position bringing BDAC back to a full council of nine members to carry out the remainder of the term.
