JULY 16-19

Flavor Flav's SHE Weekend

Flavor Flav's SHE Weekend is a celebration of the most elite women athletes in the United States. But it's designed to be far more than a single weekend. It's a call to action — a platform for lasting social change in women's sports. The start of a tradition, in Las Vegas, Nevada, honoring and uplifting female athletes everywhere. A celebration of the athletes who represent the United States at the highest level. The weekend convenes 100+ athletes of this year's winter games, including the women's hockey team and USA Bobsled + Skeleton, offering them a series of events, activities, concerts, and community moments that honor them and let them have some fun! Sponsored by Delta and MGM, which goes beyond buying a logo placement; it's funding the movement for female athletes and encouraging the next generation of Olympic medalists.

This isn't just an event. It's a movement.
