

Southern Nevada District transferred Type 6 fire engine to Clark County Cold Creek Volunteer Fire Department through the Rural Fire Readiness Program. The Cold Creek Department assists BLM with response regularly in high occurrence fire areas on the district. This new apparatus will enhance the department's ability to provide additional response to both BLM and Forest Service fires.

Left-Alexander Fonseca (Engine Captain Southern Nevada) Right-Kevin Lunkwitz (Clark County Assistant Fire Chief-Rural Services)