BACKGROUND:

On March 19, 2024, Clark County, Nevada (the “County”) and Workforce Connections entered into the Clark County Recovery Grant Interlocal Agreement for the Workforce Development Program. The Transitional Housing and Employment Training Program will target individuals currently in transitional housing and residents of Clark County, referred from Clark County. EmployNV Career Hub staff (Workforce Connections’ sub-recipients) will assist in connecting individuals with workforce development services and activities, providing critical career skills. Services include assessments, job preparation, skills acquisition, job training, employment services and supportive services.

Approval of the First Amendment will allow the County to advance funding for the program upon receipt of Workforce Connections proposed budget. Workforce Connections will provide documentation of the services provided under the program within 90 days of the services being provided. The amendment will also allow for reimbursement of sales taxes, when required.

This agenda item has been reviewed and approved by the District Attorney’s Office.
