I have been in EMS for over 20 years and a paramedic for 17 of those years all in Clark County. Currently I serve as the public affairs manager for the AMR And MedicWest Operations here in Las Vegas, as well as Arizona and New Mexico. I have worked with local, elected officials, as well as state, elected officials to improve the quality of healthcare received for all Nevadans. I am also the current president of the Nevada ambulance association with a goal to improve EMS Throughout the state. My time in the field was also dedicated to being a field training officer where I taught many of the healthcare providers, currently serving the Las Vegas valley. I believe that through my knowledge as a healthcare provider, as well as my understanding of committee process and governmental interaction. I would be an ideal candidate to represent the field of emergency medical services.
