BACKGROUND:

The Community Development Advisory Committee (CDAC) provides a vehicle for citizen participation in the County's U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development grant programs. The Committee will work with staff in developing project selection priorities, reviewing proposals, holding public hearings, and making funding recommendations.

Committee composition includes: one (1) representative and one (1) alternate from each of the town advisory boards or citizens' advisory councils; one from the Cities of North Las Vegas, Mesquite, and Boulder City; and fourteen (14) at-large individuals representing general community concerns. Town advisory boards and citizens' advisory councils have submitted nominees for Commission appointment. They are Bunkerville, Laughlin, Lone Mountain, Moapa, Paradise, Spring Valley, Sunrise Manor, Whitney, and Winchester. Appointments representing the remainder of the town advisory boards and citizen advisory councils may be made at future meetings.

On December 16, 2025, The Board of County Commissioners approved the appointments of twenty-one (21) members to the Community Development Advisory Committee (CDAC) for two-year terms.

The Cities of North Las Vegas, Boulder City, and Mesquite are authorized to make their own respective appointments who serve in an ex-officio manner. The City of North Las Vegas has appointed Diana Ramirez to serve in this capacity. The Cities of Mesquite and Boulder City have declined participation at this time.
