Invoices shall be submitted to: COUNTYProbationAdmin@clarkcountynv.gov.

2. RFP No. 605939-21, Contract for Alternative Living Services – Girls Program.
Replace all occurrences of the term “DJJS” with “COUNTY” throughout Contract including Exhibit A.

3. Exhibit A, Scope of Work, Department Background, page A-1.

ORIGINALLY WRITTEN

The Department of Juvenile Justice Services (DJJS) provides supervision and case management services for youth, 10-21 years of age, who are under the jurisdiction of the Eighth Judicial District Court.

There are six (6) divisions within DJJS: Probation Services, Detention Services, Spring Mountain Youth Camp, The Harbors, Truancy Prevention and Outreach Program (TPOP) and Health Care Services. The Probation Division has six (6) offices geographically located throughout COUNTY. The Detention Division and Clinical Division are centrally located on the campus of the Eighth Judicial District Family Court. The Spring Mountain Youth Camp is a staff-secure correctional facility, housing male youth between the ages of 12 and 18 who have been adjudicated for delinquent acts. The Youth Camp is located at Angels Peak in the Mt. Charleston Recreational/Toiyabe National Forest Area. The Harbor Division has four (4) locations geographically located throughout Clark County. TPOP is located at the Flamingo Harbor.

Youth placed on probation or under jurisdiction of the Eighth Judicial District Court, Juvenile Division, are provided community supervision and case management services by DJJS. DJJS has a primary mission and goals of protecting the community while coordinating resources to prevent and respond to juvenile delinquency and victimization. DJJS supports communities to develop and implement effective and coordinated prevention, intervention, and diversion programs to improve the juvenile justice system so that it protects public safety, holds offenders accountable, and provides treatment and rehabilitative services tailored to the needs of juveniles and their families.

Probation Officers within DJJS are expected to be competent in addressing a variety of issues, including but not limited to, substance abuse, sexual deviancy, child abuse, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, gangs, and mental health issues. Probation Officers work in collaboration with community groups and social service agencies to provide offenders and victims with support and services. DJJS maintains partnerships with local law enforcement and other justice agencies so they can benefit from each other's area of expertise and communicate the latest information.

COUNTY will be providing the selected PROVIDER with the property and physical building infrastructure. This includes the physical building, parking, general landscaping, maintenance, and utilities (power, electric, gas, sewer, water, trash, telephone, cable). The facility is located at 520 S. 30th Street, Las Vegas, NV 89101. This facility is under 24-hour camera surveillance operated and maintained exclusively by COUNTY. COUNTY and PROVIDER will comply with all PREA standards and COUNTY will provide surveillance footage to PROVIDER for operational review.

REVISED TO READ

The Department of Juvenile Justice Services (COUNTY) (includes Office of Clinical Community Services (OCCS) & Family Services) provides supervision and case management services for youth, 10-21 years of age, who are under the jurisdiction of the Eighth Judicial District Court.

Youth placed on probation, under jurisdiction of the Eighth Judicial District Court, and under the legal custody of Clark County Family Services, are provided community supervision and case management services. COUNTY has a primary mission and goals of protecting the community while coordinating resources to prevent and respond to juvenile delinquency and keep youth safe from abuse and neglect.

COUNTY Probation Officers, Case Managers and Clinicians, are expected to be competent in addressing a variety of issues, including but not limited to, substance abuse, sexual deviancy, child abuse, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, gangs, and mental health issues. COUNTY will work in collaboration with community groups and social service agencies to provide youth with support and services. COUNTY maintains partnerships with other COUNTY agencies, local law enforcement and other justice agencies so they can benefit from each other's area of expertise and communicate the latest information.

COUNTY will be providing PROVIDER with two (2) properties and physical building infrastructures. This includes the physical building, parking, general landscaping, maintenance, and utilities (power, electric, gas, sewer, water, trash, telephone, cable). The facilities are located at 520 S. 30th Street, Las Vegas, NV 89101 and 518 S. 30th Street, Las Vegas, NV 89101, known as Pivot Point. Both facilities are under 24-hour camera surveillance operated and maintained exclusively by COUNTY. COUNTY and PROVIDER will comply with all PREA standards and COUNTY will provide surveillance footage to PROVIDER for operational review.

4. Exhibit A, Scope of Work, Licenses, page A-9.
