BACKGROUND:

Pursuant to Clark County Code 2.05.060, the membership of the Clark County Department of Juvenile Justice Services Citizen’s Advisory Committee (CAC) shall consist of eleven (11) voting members appointed by the Board of County Commissioners and the Director of the Department of Juvenile Justice Services who shall be an ex-officio non-voting member of the board. One member shall be the chief executive officer, or designee, of an employee organization which is a recognized bargaining agent for employees of the Department of Juvenile Justice Services. The remaining members shall be persons who have demonstrated interest in community issues involving Juvenile Justice Services, except that not more than three members may be employed by the Department of Juvenile Justice Services, the Department of Family Services or any like state department.

Of the six qualified applicants, three must be appointed and serve a term commencing on July 1, 2026, through June 30, 2029. Applicant Jody Lupo-Masden qualifies as a designee of an employee organization which is a recognized bargaining agent for employees of Clark County Juvenile Justice Services.
