Section 2.1 General Powers. The Clark County, Nevada Board of County Commissioners serves as the Board. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by, its Board.

Section 2.2 Meetings. A regular annual meeting of the Board shall be held at the time and place as determined by the Board, for the purpose of appointing officers and transacting such business as may come before the meeting. The Board may provide notice of the time and place for the holding of additional regular meetings. Meetings of the Board shall be conducted consistent with Nevada Open Meeting Law, N.R.S. Chapter 241, as amended, and the then-current Clark County Board of Commissioners Rules of Procedure Handbook, as if references therein (a) to the ‘Board’ are references to the Board of the Corporation, (b) to the ‘Clerk’ are references to the Secretary of the Corporation, and (c) to the ‘County Manager’ are references to the Manager of the Corporation (thus interpreted, the “Board Rules”). For purposes of the Nevada Open Meeting Law, the Board shall be considered a “public body.” Any executive session of the Board shall be conducted pursuant to the Nevada Open Meeting Law.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the Chair, the Vice-Chair, or by a majority of the Board, upon notice to the Board in accordance with the Board Rules.

Section 2.4 Public Notice. Meetings of the Board shall be noticed and open to the public in the same manner and to the same extent as required under the Nevada Open Meeting Law, N.R.S. Chapter 241, as amended, or any successor provisions.

Section 2.5 Presumption of Assent. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless such director objects to the transaction of such business or to such action at the meeting. The right of a director to dissent as to a specific action taken in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board pursuant to this Section 2.5 is not available to a director who votes in favor of such action.

Section 2.6 Quorum and Board Action. Determination of quorum and the vote of the Board shall be made in accordance with the Board Rules.

Section 2.7 Voting by Proxy. No director may vote or act by proxy at any meeting of directors.

Section 2.8 Compensation. Directors as such shall not receive any stated salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board, expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board. Such fixed amount shall be consistent with the expense reimbursement paid to directors of comparable non-profit boards of directors as is determined from time to time by resolution of the Board.

Section 2.9 Reports. The Board shall provide an annual report to the Clark County Board of County Commissioners which must include, without limitation, the information set forth in N.R.S. 244.197(5) (as such provision may be amended from time to time).

Each such committee must be comprised of at least one director and, to the extent provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the Board, provided that no such committee may:

(a) Amend, alter or repeal these Bylaws; Elect, appoint, or remove any member of any such committee or any director of the Corporation; Amend or repeal the Articles, adopt a plan of merger or plan of consolidation with another corporation; Authorize the sale, lease, or exchange of all of the property and assets of the Corporation; Authorize the voluntary dissolution of the Corporation or revoke proceedings therefor; Adopt a plan for the distribution of the assets of the Corporation; or Amend, alter, or repeal any resolution of the Board unless it provides by its terms that it may be amended, altered, or repealed by a committee; or Take any other action prohibited by Chapter 82 of the Nevada Revised Statutes.

The delegation of authority to any committee shall not operate to relieve the Board or any member of the Board from any responsibility or standard of conduct imposed by law or these Bylaws. Rules governing procedures for meetings of any committee shall be the same as those set forth in these Bylaws or Chapter 82 of the Nevada Revised Statutes for the Board unless the Board or the committee itself determines otherwise.

Section 2.11 Advisory Boards. The Board may from time to time form one or more advisory boards, committees, auxiliaries or other bodies composed of such members, having such rules of procedure, and having such chair, as the Board shall designate. The name, objectives and responsibilities of each such advisory board, and the rules and procedures for the conduct of its activities, shall be determined by the Board. An advisory board may provide such advice, service, and assistance to the Corporation, and carry out such duties and responsibilities for the Corporation as may be specified by the Board; except that, if any such committee or advisory board has one or more members thereof who are entitled to vote on committee matters and who are not then also directors, such committee or advisory board may not exercise any power or authority reserved to the Board by Chapter 82 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, the Articles, or these Bylaws. A vacancy in any office, however occurring, may be filled by the Board, or by any officer or committee to which such authority has been delegated by the Board, for the unexpired portion of the term. If a resignation is made effective at a later date, the Board may permit the officer to remain in office until the effective date and may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date with the provision that the successor does not take office until the effective date, or the Board may remove the officer at any time before the effective date and may fill the resulting vacancy.

ARTICLE IV

FIDUCIARY MATTERS

Section 4.1 Indemnification.

(a) Scope of Indemnification. Subject to N.R.S. Sections 244.196 to 244.1995, the Corporation shall indemnify each director and officer of the Corporation to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the State of Nevada, including under N.R.S. Section

82.541 and any successor amended statute, and may in its discretion purchase insurance insuring its obligations hereunder or otherwise protecting the persons intended to be protected by this Section 4.1. The Corporation shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to indemnify any employee, volunteer, or agent of the Corporation not otherwise covered by this Section 4.1 to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the State of Nevada.

(b) Savings Clause; Limitation. If any provision of Chapter 82 of the N.R.S. or these Bylaws dealing with indemnification shall be invalidated by any court on any ground, then the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each party otherwise entitled to indemnification hereunder to the fullest extent permitted by law or any applicable provision of Chapter 82 of the N.R.S. or these Bylaws that shall not have been invalidated. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, the Corporation shall neither indemnify any person nor purchase any insurance in any manner or to any extent that would jeopardize or be inconsistent with the qualification of the Corporation as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or that would result in the imposition of any liability under either section 4941 or section 4958 of the Code.

Section 4.2 General Standards of Conduct for Directors and Officers.

(a) Discharge of Duties. Each director shall discharge the director's duties as a director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee of the Board, and each officer with discretionary authority shall discharge the officer's duties under that authority (i) in good faith; (ii) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and (iii) in a manner the director or officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Corporation.

(b) Reliance on Information, Reports, Etc. In discharging duties, a director or officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by: (i) one or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the director or officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (ii) legal counsel, a public accountant or another person as to matters the director or officer reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence; or (iii) in the case of a director, a committee of the Board of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence. A director or officer is not acting in good faith if the director or officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by this Section 4.2(b) unwarranted.

(c) Liability to Corporation. A director or officer shall not be liable as such to the Corporation for any action taken or omitted to be taken as a director or officer, as the case may be, if, in connection with such action or omission, the director or officer performed the duties of the position in compliance with this Section 4.2.

(d) Director Not Deemed to Be a "Trustee." A director, regardless of title, shall not be deemed to be a "trustee" within the meaning given that term by trust law with respect to the Corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the Corporation including, without limitation, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of such property.

Section 4.3 Approval of Conflicting Interest Transactions. All action of the Corporation shall be subject to Clark County Code Chapter 2.42 Ethical Standards, including without limitation, Section 2.42.020 Conflict of interest, as amended, as if references therein (a) to a ‘commissioner’ are references to a director of the Board of the Corporation, (b) to the ‘board’ are references to the Board of the Corporation, (c) to a ‘county employee’ are references to an officer of the Corporation, and (d) to the ‘county manager’ are references to the Manager of the Corporation (thus interpreted, the “Conflict of Interest Policy”). (a) The material facts as to the responsible person’s relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board or to a committee of the Board that authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction, and the Board or committee in good faith authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors on the Board or committee, even though the disinterested directors are less than a quorum; or

(b) The conflicting interest transaction is fair as to the Corporation.
