Dear County,

I am writing to express my interest to fill the vacancy for the Nevada Senate Seat in District 10. I believe with my experience in public service, my knowledge and love for Las Vegas and it's people I will be an asset to our Government.

Born into a show business family, my Father Frederic Apcar had several shows on the Las Vegas Strip and was awarded A Lifetime Achievement award from UNLV. He helped shape Las Vegas into what it is today.

Las Vegas is the Entertainment Capitol of the World and I would love to see a Costume Museum come to life. The Community and the Tourists would love it! A Costume Museum is what the City needs, it's great for Culture, the Arts and Fashion.

I would like our City to not only promote Sports but Entertainment because that is what Las Vegas is known for. I want to work on developing the area around UNLV for future generations to come.

We should develop a plan to have a bicycle path from UNLV to Downtown. It would not only be great for the area but people would be more friendly, healthy, ecological and social.

I would like to also bring my education and experiences to certain topics that would benefit us all, such as healthcare, mental health, drugs, homelessness and our Bill of Rights. I hope you consider me for this position as I would love to Represent District 10.

Sincerely yours,

Elisabeth Apcar
