Statement of Interest

Nevada Senate Seat – Senate District 10 Statement of Interest

Greetings,

I am writing this letter and submitting application for interest in the Nevada State Senate District 10 seat. I have been involved in politics for most of my life. I am a transplant from the South Suburbs of Chicago Illinois. I have always been involved in several organizations. I have been involved on local and national politics. Worked on Election for Sheriff Michael F. Sheahan and 19th Ward Organization in Chicago. Also was Precinct Captain for Rich Township for Illinois Speaker of the House Michael Madigan. I worked for the Rich Township Democratic Organization under Committeeman Tim Bradford as Director of Operations.

I have worked actively with Bloom Township Democratic Organization and The Unity Party Organization located in Chicago Heights, Illinois. I have worked for many organizations. I ran for College Board and elected in 2011 and Re Elected in 2017 by a large margin. I oversaw a $57 million a year budget, and worked with administration to operate. Elected for two-year seat ACCT (Association Community College Trustees) position for Committee of Diversity Equity and Inclusion.

I have full support of many groups due to my hard work and follow through of promises made and kept. Support from Several Mayors, LGBTQ, State Representatives and Senators, US Congressman/Congresswomen. Active community activist.

With my time in Nevada, I have wanted to bring my talents and community relation skills to my community. I am an avid golfer and enjoy riding my Harley. I have met many people from all occupations, backgrounds and lifestyles. Many of my years, I worked in community policing which gives me an edge on many. I support following the chain of command in any organization. I am also a team player. If chosen for the position I have strong work ethics and will work for the taxpayers and assist our local government and Governor.

Respectfully,

Marc A. Wiley
