BACKGROUND:

Founded in 1996, the Summer Business Institute represents a collaborative effort among Clark County, other government entities, and the local business community. Participation in the program gives students the opportunity to have a meaningful summer internship that will support their academic and professional careers beyond high school. The Board of County Commissioners is requested to accept donations from the following agencies and private companies:

Bank of America	$30,000.00
Carollo Engineers	$ 3,500.00
Nevada's Children & Family Development Center	$ 2,000.00

The proclamations will be presented to the donors who have provided financial assistance and/or in kind donations exceeding $2,000.00 value with the student workshops, scholarships, student stipends, incentive awards, needed materials and other program related expenses.
