BACKGROUND:

The Community Development Advisory Committee (CDAC) provides a vehicle for citizen participation into the County's U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development grant program. CDAC meetings for the County's HOME and Emergency Solutions Grant programs will be held monthly through January 2022, beginning November 2021. The Committee will work with staff in developing project selection priorities, reviewing proposals, holding public hearings, making funding recommendations, and monitoring program implementation.

Committee composition includes a representative and alternate from each of the town advisory boards, citizens advisory councils, and from the Cities of North Las Vegas, Mesquite, and Boulder City, as well as fourteen at-large individuals representing general community concerns. councils have submitted nominees for Commission appointment with the exception of the Indian Springs TAB which declined representation. The nominations for the town advisory boards and citizens' advisory councils of Lower Kyle Canyon, Winchester, and Lone Mountain will be made at future meeting. The Cities of North Las Vegas, Boulder City, and Mesquite are authorized to make their own respective appointments who serve in an ex-officio manner. The Cities of Boulder City and Mesquite declined representation. The Commission is responsible for monitoring and appointing the 14 at-large members. It is recommended that Ms. Donna Darden serve as Chairperson.
